

Club Conduct at O'Week & Clubsland

All student groups require approval from the Adelaide University Union prior to any participation in O'Week or Clubsland. Stalls and displays may not be set up from during O'Week or Clubsland except as part of official displays, and must receive prior approval from the Union.

2018 Dates

O'Week 17-21 February

Clubsland 31 July – 2 August

Other events

Clubs are welcome to hold events such as BBQs, movie nights, and Meet & Greet sessions during O'Week and Clubsland, but these must not take place in the restricted zones or designated areas between 9am-5pm.

O'Week: These areas include the Hub and all outdoors areas unless written consent is provided by the Adelaide University Union.

Clubsland: These areas include the Hub Level 4 (ground level) and the Western Courtyard. If you require clarification or have an orientation event and would like assistance with promotion, space booking, or facilities please contact events@auu.org.au.

During O'Week and Clubsland, stalls, displays, demonstrations, and activities, clubs must adhere to all event Terms and Conditions stipulated by the Union and rules and restrictions determined by the University. This ensures the smooth operation of the events and ensures that all clubs are treated fairly, with equal opportunity to promote themselves.

Club stalls and displays during O'Week and Clubsland must not:

- Promote third-party services
- Feature external guests
- Take place outside of official O'Week/Clubsland areas
- Promote harassment, discrimination, or other offensive material
- Disrupt guests, other stalls, staff, or bring the Union/University into disrepute

In addition, all stallholders and volunteers must remain within the boundaries of their stall when active. Volunteers may not advertise or distribute flyers outside of their stall.

Club stalls at O'Week and Clubsland must not feature advertising or representatives from any third-party organisations, except where the Union has granted approval.

Breaches of Rules

If a club (including any volunteers at a club stall) is found to be in breach of these rules, they will be given one warning.

In the instance that there are further instances of inappropriate conduct, disciplinary actions will be taken including:

- Immediate removal of the club from O'Week or Clubsland;
- Ineligibility for Clubs Awards in the O'Week Stalls category;
- A mandatory disciplinary meeting between staff and the executive of the club

Depending on the severity of the situation, the club may also be prohibited from booking a stall at future events such as O'Week 2019, and may be prohibited from receiving Clubs grants for 6 months.

Clubs that establish stalls or displays without authorisation, or in non-approved spaces, will be asked to leave the area and will face immediate disciplinary actions.
