

Schedule 4 to the AUU Constitution: YouX Brand

Authority

A Schedule of YouX enacted Pursuant to Clause 19 of the AUU Constitution

Objective

To protect and enhance YouX's reputation by establishing and promoting correct and consistent use of the YouX brand.

Principle

Board directors, staff, volunteers, Annual Elections and/or By-Elections candidates and affiliates, must use and support the approved brand as set out in this schedule. Non-compliance with this schedule will be addressed through YouX's disciplinary procedures and may also be subject to sanctions.

Students or external individuals or bodies carrying out activities that would enhance YouX's reputation are strongly encouraged to acknowledge YouX by using the approved brand as set out in this schedule.

Explanation

The AUU introduced a separate branding in 2021 that will be used to ensure inclusivity. This schedule ensures the AUU have consistent branding for maximum student recognition. To avoid confusion, the AUU will be continue to be known as "Adelaide University Union (AUU)".

Amendment to YouX Brand

Branding that introduces a new visual identifier (for example, logo, colour or domain name) outside the specifications of this Schedule is prohibited. The YouX brand can only be altered by the process outlined in Clause 19.3 of the AUU Constitution.

Transitional Matters

By 18th July 2022, all YouX branding must comply with this schedule.

The YouX Brand

The domain name of the YouX brand is "YouX", with the tagline of "Make Uni Your Way".
